DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

The specification has been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. However, the applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 9 is objected to because of the following informalities:
3. Claim 9, line 7, recitation of "OON-state" is appeared in a typographical error. Appropriate correction is required.

Priority

4. Applicant cannot rely upon the foreign priority papers to overcome this rejection because a translation of said papers has not been made of record in accordance with 37 CFR 1.55. See MPEP § 201.15.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2821

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Serizawa (US Pat. 6,715,909).

Serizawa discloses a vehicular lamp used in a vehicle, comprising:

a light source (6) operable to emit light in accordance with power given thereto;

a lamp body (2, 3) operable to accommodate said light source and protect said light source from an ambient environment or water;

a first resistor (20) provided in an outside (21) of said lamp body (2, 3) and connected in series with said light source (Fig. 3); and a protection circuit (13) function as a limiting current circuit, provided in an inside of said lamp body, operable to stop/prevent an undesirable current occurs in a supplied voltage or current to be supplied to said light source.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 2-9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

8. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior fails to reduces a current flowing through the first resistor via the current limiting circuit in a case where a voltage supplied to said first resistor is equal to or higher than a predetermined voltage as required in claim 2 or detects a resistor current flowing through the first resistor and bypasses a part of the resistor current to ground in a case where the detected resistor current is larger than a predetermined current as required in claim 6. The prior art also lacks to support the current limiting circuit by including a switching transistor, connected in series with said light source, operable to repeatedly switch whether or not a current is supplied to said light source; and a duty controller operable to keep said switching transistor in ON-state in a case where said vehicular lamp serves as a stop lamp and to control a duration ratio of an ON-state and an OFF-state of said switching transistor to control power to be supplied to said light source in a case where said vehicular lamp serves as a taillight as required in claim 5.

Art Unit: 2821

Citation of pertinent prior art

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicants' disclosure.

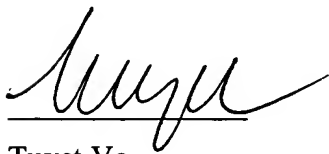

Menzer et al. (US Pub. 2002/0043943) discloses LED array primary display light sources employing dynamically a switchable bypass circuitry.
